In this town. In October, 1845, I took cold, and for six months I was afflicted with the Influenza, and the worst cough I have ever experienced during my whole life. Myself and friends had strong doubts of my ever recovering. I got a bottle of Schenck's Syrup; it did me no good. I then applied to a physician, who prescribed for me several times, but did not cure me. At last my physician advised me to take Dr. Wistar's Celebrated Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has performed so many remarkable cures. I did so, and I believe that saved my life; my cough left me entirely, when I had taken a single bottle. I am now enjoying good health. If I ever again have a similar attack, or any of my family, I shall immediately resort to favour any of my family, I shall immediately resort to do so from his own personal observation and experience in using it. One very strong case of cure of a young man occurred in this immediate vicinity, of which Dr. Homan informed me.

AUCTION SALES.

By W. Goddin, Auctioneer. EXTENSIVE SALE OF VALUBLE

James River Lands AND COAL PROPERTY.

In pursuance of a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery, for the Eleminond Circuit, made on the 29th June, 1847, the undersigned will offer for sale, on WEDNESDAY, the 10th day of November next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, the following valuable Estates, lying on James river and Tuckahoe creek, viz:

No. 1.—The upper Plantation, adjoining the lands of Thomas Mann Randolph, Esq., containing, by recent survey, 1,250 acres, a large portion of which consists of River Low Grounds, 250 acres being on Tuckahoe Island, with a considerable body on Tuckahoe creek. This tract is situated immediately in the line of coal formation, naving pits now in successful operation on each side of it—and a few years ago Coal Mines were extensively worked on the premises. A thick seam of coal on the land adjoining this tract has lately been opened and worked nearly to the line. It is believed that no lands in Virginia offer a more favorable prospect for those who wish to engage in the coal business.

This Estate lies in a compact form—the buildings are near the centre of the open land, and the whole of it is in excellent heart.

No. 2.—The tract formerly owned by James Currie, deceased, called ELLERSLIE, adjoining No. 1, and containing, by survey, 765 acres, of which about 200 acres are Low Grounds of the hest quality. On this tract there is an excellent succeed brick Dwelling House, with an Ice House and other convenient out houses.

No. 3.—The lower Plantation, purchased of the late David Meade Randolph, containing, by survey, 691 acres, of which about 174 acres are River Low Grounds, with a large body of second low grounds. There is a dwelling heuse on this tract, which, at a small expense, might be rendered a very comfortable residence.

No. 4.—A tract of Land hought of Thomas Mann Randolph, having thereon a grist, a saw Mil, and containing about 195 acres. On about 74 acres, at the SW conner of this tract, Mr. Randolph has reserved a right to dig coal.

These tracts of land are contiguous to each other.-

to dig coal.

These tracts of land are contiguous to each other.—
They form a body of land of great fertility, and in the highest state of improvement. Their vicinity to Richmond, being distant from ten to twelve miles; the advantages of the canal, which passes at the foot of the hills, in a situation to do the least possible injury; the means it affords of irrigation and of a water power, there being a perpetual waste of water at two points, with the value of the coal property, make it perhaps the most valuable estate that was ever offered for sale in Virginia—near 300 acres have been limed with great benefit. About 1,000 bushels of wheat will be sown betore the sale.

The tracts will be offered for sale at ELLERSLIE, which is nearly central, in the order as above described. The terms, according to the decree, will be as follows, viz: one-fourth of the purchase money in cash, and the residue in three equal instalments of one, two and three years, bearing interest from the first day of January next, when possession of the property will be delivered; the purchasers executing bonds for the credit payments, and receiving no conveyance till the purchase money shall be paid, and a conveyance directed by the Court. Mr. Jenkins, residing on the estate, will show it to any one desirous of surchasing.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF LAND, MILLS, TANNERY, &c., IN GOOCHLAND.
THE undersigned, as Commissioner appointed by a decree of the County Court of Goochland, in the case of Fowler and others se. Shelton and others, will, on MONDAY, the 15th day of November, 1847, at Goochland Court house, offer for sale, by public and iton, to the highest bidder, that portion of the lands of the Estate of the late Col. Joseph Shelton, in the county of Goochland, which has been allotted to the heirs of the late Major Thomas Shelton. The tract contains about 150 acres, a portion superior meadow, with an abundance of wood for the support of the place, and attached to which is that valuable Grist and Flour Mill known as "Shelton's Mill." The Mill is situated on an unfalling stream, in command of an extensive custom, which it must retain, as there is no other mill in the neighborhood. The principal works are of iron, which will render material repairs unnecessary for years. There is also on the land a Tannery, now in successful operation. It is believed to be a good stand for a Store, Smith's Shop, &c.

I deem it unnecessary to enumerate the advantages of this property in detail:—purchasers are invited to examine it. The property is situated on the White Hallroad, within two miles of Micajah Parrish's, and seven miles above Goochland Court house. The property rents this year for $350. In the hands of an enterprising proprietor, its value would be greatly enhanced.

TERMS—A credit of one and two years, except as to osts of sale, &c., will be given, the purchaser giving bonds with approved security, and the title being retained as further security, is directed by the decreebut it is probable one-third of the purchase money will be required in hand, and the balance in two annual payments, secured as above.
